Commencing an Off Campus Group

Commencing an Off Campus group is as simple as selecting the subjects you feel your group should study and arranging for a suitable time and location for the DVDs to be viewed.

Upon ordering subjects, a set of DVDs will be sent on a loan basis to the hosting church while the course materials will be supplied for each enrolled student.

The course materials contain a cover letter outlining the details of the subject, assessment requirements and student notes.

A. Promoting an Off Campus Group

Once you have made the decision to host an Off Campus group please contact the College for multiple copies of our Off Campus Information Pack. These packs provide information about ILC and the courses available through our Off Campus program and can be given to each prospective student.

You are welcome to produce additional promotional material to supplement this pack to outline the particular subjects you will be offering with timetable details etc.

Note: in accordance with Government regulations please submit all additional promotional material to the college for approval prior to release.

B. Enrolling Students

Before enrolling it is important that students read the Off Campus Student Handbook contained in the Off Campus Information Pack as it outlines all the requirements of studying with ILC.

Students who wish to enrol in the subjects you are offering in your group need to complete the Application Form.

Enrolment forms may be forwarded to the College as a group but if students chose to send their application forms individually they must clearly indicate that they are part of your group.

It is helpful if these application forms are completed and returned to the College before commencing your group's first subject however we understand the difficulty this may present in co-ordinating the start of a group and so we ask that they be submitted no later than two weeks after commencing their first subject.

C. Setting up a Timetable

Subjects may be studied one at a time or it is possible to offer a mixture of subjects at any one time. Where more than one subject is studied at a time it will require the setting up of a timetable.

Each subject varies in size. Subjects of 10 nominal hours are equivalent to approximately 9 lecture sessions of 50 minutes duration. How quickly you move through each subject is up to you. A common approach is to offer a 10 nominal hour subject as a 1 lecture session per week for 9 weeks. The 20 nominal hour subjects can be offered as 2 lecture sessions per week for 9 weeks or 1 lecture session per week over 18 weeks. Note: this is applicable only to classroom based subjects.

Example: Timetable

Monday Evenings	Term 1 (9 weeks)	Term 2 (9 weeks)	Term 3 (9 weeks)	Term 4 (9 weeks)
6:30pm to 7:20pm	How to study the Bible	Exploring Ephesians	Exploring Ephesians	Exploring relationship and family Issues
7:30pm to 8:20pm	How to study the Bible	Exploring the Church	Evangelism made easy	Exploring relationship and family Issues
8:40pm to 9:30pm	Exploring the Bible	Exploring the nature of God	Exploring Salvation	Exploring the Last Things

A full-time study option for the Study Stream requires a timetable of 10 to 11 lecture sessions to be offered each week for 4 terms of 9 weeks. With the full-time study option the Certificate IV in Christian Leadership course can be completed in 1 year and the Diploma of Christian Leadership in 2 years. Please see the accompanying Sample Timetables if you wish to offer the full-time course.

D. Subject Selection

Although the subjects from our courses can be studied in any order it is recommended that you select the shorter and more devotional units when first establishing a group.

If your group is planning to complete a full course with ILC (or a substantial portion of it) it is recommended that you include Develop your Spiritual Life and the ministry experience subjects highlighted in grey on the Subject Order Form amongst the first subjects as the assessment takes an extended period of time.

Please feel free to contact our College staff at any time for advice or feedback on which subjects to offer in your local church setting to suit the needs of your students.

E. Ordering Subjects

Please use the enclosed Off Campus Group Subject Order Form to notify us of your subject selections and student enrolments.

Subjects need to be ordered 2 to 3 weeks prior to the date you wish to commence. If exact numbers are not known an estimate is required. This timeframe allows for a week for postal delivery depending on your location. Express postage is not used unless requested and paid for by the hosting group.

If an estimate is given at the time of ordering subjects, please submit the completed Off Campus Group Subject Order Form no later than two weeks upon commencing the subject along with the appropriate fee payments. Also at this time please return any unused course material packs.

Upon completion of a subject the DVDs must be returned to the College as they remain the property of ILC. Course material packs are kept by the students.

F. Lecture Delivery and Assessment

As all ILC courses are government accredited they cannot be delivered by non ILC personnel. Therefore in hosting an Off Campus group all lecture sessions must be presented using the ILC DVDs and all assessments need to be marked by the ILC staff.

G. Group Interaction

Hosting an Off Campus group allows your students to receive accredited Christian Ministry training that can be applied to your own local church setting through group discussions and activities outside of the formal lecture sessions. You are welcome to run discussion groups to help students with the formal study.

H. Textbooks & Additional Study Resources

Most of the ILC lecture notes are comprehensive enough so that students do not need to purchase textbooks. In general where additional reading is required for the completion of assessments ILC will supply students with loan copies of books or photocopies of appropriate readings. Please contact us if at any time you feel the students require help with additional resources and we can make arrangements from our own library. However, if there is a suitable theological library in the area we recommend students utilize this resource.

I. Student Assessments & Academic Results

All assessments need to be completed and submitted to ILC within 4 weeks of completing the lecture sessions of each subject.

All assessments will be returned to the group via the group co-ordinator.

The students can also view a report of their results at any time on our Student Noticeboard at www.influencerslc.com.

Please note that it is possible for students to enrol with the College as audit students in which case they choose to participate in subjects without being assessed and receive no academic credit with the College.

Fees and Discounts

A. Course Fees

Individual subject fees are indicated on the appropriate order forms. The total course fee for the Certificate IV in Christian Leadership and Diploma of Christian Leadership is $2,840 to $3,234 per full-time year depending on elective units chosen.

B. Off Campus Group Rebate

If your church hosts a group of 4 or more students on a part-time or full-time basis your church will receive 15% of the student fees (i.e. 4 or more students undertaking the same subject at the same time). Students are required to pay the standard course fee prices and ILC will return the rebate to the host church on a quarterly basis.

This group rebate payment to the host church is subject to GST and therefore your church is required to remit the applicable GST to the ATO on this amount unless your organisation is not registered for GST or is part of the AOG religious group for taxation purposes. Please contact the Australian Tax Office for more details.

C. Application Fee

There is no application fee for ILC.

D. Postage and Handling

Standard postage and handling charges for materials sent to the group are covered by the College. The hosting group is responsible to cover the cost of returning the DVD resources to the College. You are welcome to recoup this cost from the students.

If Express post is required this will need to be covered by the hosting group.

E. Discounts

The following discounts are available as follows:

1. Spouse Discount

We encourage married couples to grow together in God and as such where two married people are studying together we extend a discount of 40% of course fees on the second person.

2. Ministerial Discount

Pastors/ministers who hold a credential with a recognised religious group and their spouse are entitled to a 40% discount of course fees. Please supply a copy of credential in order to receive this discount

3. Audit Discount

Students not wishing to complete assessments are entitled to a 50% discount of course fees. Audit students are not entitled to academic credit from the College since they do not participate in assessments. Where a student is in receipt of the audit discount, the other discounts do not apply.

Note: Only one discount can apply per student.

Where any of these discounts apply, please indicate on the Off Campus Group Subject Order Form.

F. Payment Procedure

Course Fees are invoiced to each individual student according to the subjects they enrol in. Invoices are sent to the group co-coordinator to distribute to the students. Group coordinators are required to monitor student payments and it is the responsibility of the group coordinator to ensure that all students pay their invoices within 2 weeks of commencing each subject.

Group coordinators need to collect monies from students on behalf of ILC and send a group cheque to the College. It is essential that they clearly indicate the breakdown of the allocation of monies on an individual student basis.

Where student fees remained unpaid, they are not permitted to continue with any new subjects.

Full-time students may chose to arrange a direct debit payment plan through the College. Please contact the College for more details.

Additional Information

A. Youth Allowance/Austudy/Abstudy

Youth Allowance/Austudy/Abstudy are available to those who are enrolled in full-time Off Campus study, subject to the successful lodgement of a claim with the appropriate authorities.

To apply for this assistance students will need a letter of acceptance from the College confirming that they are a full-time student with us. This will be sent to the student upon receipt of their application form and their acceptance into the College.

Where students are in receipt of Youth Allowance/Austudy/Abstudy they must maintain a full-time study load consistently through out their studies i.e. being enrolled in and maintaining course requirements of 6 units per term to a minimum of 140 nominal hours.

B. Student Support

The College is committed to supporting students in their studies. Students are welcome to contact us directly if they require assistance or clarification with subject requirements or you may wish to contact us on their behalf if there is a common concern amongst the group.

In addition to this, the College will make every effort to assist students with specific learning needs or difficulties. This may result in customising assessment processes or study programs to help them in their study. Please contact the College if any students in your group have any specific learning needs with which we can assist.

C. Confidentiality of Student Records

All student records, financial and academic are strictly confidential. As part of the enrolment process students are asked to sign a statement giving permission for ILC to disclose their student records to the hosting church. This allows the group co-ordinator and ILC to work together in managing the student finances and assessment results. We would ask that you respect the confidentiality of student records and as the group co-ordinator take appropriate measures to ensure that records are not discussed or disclosed to anyone other than yourself as the appointed group co-ordinator. All student records need to be kept in a secure and confidential place. If there are other church personnel carrying out duties on behalf of the group co-ordinator they must be indicated on the Off Campus Group Application Form and sign the confidentiality statements.
